

Missouri Association of
COUNCILS OF GOVERNMENT

RPC ADVANTAGE

Supporting county and municipal governments
with the new 2021
Federal Bipartisan
Infrastructure (BIL)
local programs

put the new
Federal Bipartisan Infrastructure Law
to work in your community!

The 2022 BIL offers tremendous opportunities for our Counties. Local jurisdictions can count on their RPCs to help navigate them through this.

Steve Hobbs, Executive Director - Missouri Association of Counties

2021 Federal Bipartisan Infrastructure Law (BIL)

- Establishes over 100 new infrastructure development programs
- Increases funding to existing programs
- Approves billions of dollars in competitive funding available to local governments

The “RPC Advantage” with BIL programs

- Every RPC stands ready to assist their local jurisdictions navigating through BIL, upon request
- Determine and prioritize a city’s or county’s needs
- Identify all funding opportunities available
- Suggest funding programs for existing plan priorities

Every RPC has the capacity to:

- Know program details and deadlines
- Share eligibility and criteria for funding
- Prepare funding applications
- Partner with local governments to administer projects, as needed
- Help bring much needed Federal investment to your region
